DISAPPEARS AFTER TAKING NACOR

Weakened lungs as a result of a seere case of whooping cough left Lella Stallings of Griffin, Ind., in very poor condition. After efforts to afford relief had failed, her parents obtained NACOR for her, with the excellent results as told in the following letter:

"I took the whooping cough when I was only two months old. It settled on my lungs and I gradually declined until it was necessary to carry me on a pillow. They took me to the doctor and tried every one they thought would help me, but got little relief from my cough. After taking a bottle of your medicine, I found that I was improving very much. I have taken improving very much. I have taken Nacor until my cough is almost gone. I am now seven years old, weigh 46-pounds and go to school every day. I give Nacor all the praise for my relief and hope that I can only cause some one else to

In speaking of this girl's wonderful recovery, her father makes the fol-lowing statement:
